The South Carolina Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation has adopted the following policy for the administration of examinations for licensure as provided by the South Carolina Contractor’s Licensing Board. This policy will ensure the integrity of licensing examinations by eliminating the opportunity for candidates to attain test scores by fraudulent means and the compromise of examinations provided by the board’s examination provider:

1. any candidate that passes an exam shall not be allowed to take the same exam again;
2. any candidate that fails an exam shall be given a diagnostic report that will provide feedback about performance on a particular content domain, which will direct the candidate to areas that require further study; and
3. the department does not require the board’s examination provider to provide a list of candidates for licensure examination.

Assistant Deputy Director of Labor, Licensing and Regulation

Effective: June 15, 2004

EXAMINATIONS BY PSI

This Candidate Information Bulletin provides you with information about the examination and application process for becoming licensed as a commercial contractor in South Carolina. To be licensed, you must pass a Business and Law Examination on the South Carolina Code of Laws to confirm that you have attained at least a minimum level of knowledge regarding the principles, practices, statutes, and regulations. Most general and mechanical contractor classifications also require passing a technical examination. Those examinations are listed in this Candidate Information Bulletin. The scope of work for these examinations can be found in the South Carolina Code of Laws booklet, “The Act” in section 40-11-410.

The South Carolina Contractor’s Licensing Board (state) has contracted with PSI Licensure:certification (PSI) to conduct its examination program. PSI provides examinations through a network of computer examination sites in South Carolina. PSI works closely with the state to be certain that examinations meet local as well as national requirements in basic principles of contractor services and examination development standards.

In order to obtain a license, candidates must pass the required examination(s) mandated by the state. Minimum qualification must be met before registering for the examination. Candidates for the general and mechanical contractor’s license must have at least 2 years commercial experience within the last 5 years in the general or mechanical contractor classification in which these candidates are seeking licensure. The experience must be documented on an experience affidavit submitted with the commercial license application after passing the required examinations. Burglar and Fire Alarm contractor candidates are not required to have work experience.

A license issued by the South Carolina Contractor’s Licensing Board allows an entity to engage in commercial as well as residential construction. If an entity is solely engaged in residential construction, the South Carolina Residential Home Builders Commission must license the entity. You may obtain a license application and examination information by calling (803) 896-4696.

Effective September 1, 2002, Burglar and Fire Alarm contractors are required to pass the NTS Level I (burglar) and the NICET Level II (fire) examinations in addition to the examinations given by PSI. For information on NTS Level I certifications, contact the S.C. Alarm Association at (803) 252-0580. For NICET Level II, contact the Nat’l Institute for Certification in Engineering, 1420 King St, Alexandria, VA 22314-2794 (888) 476-4238.

Note: for burglar the NTS level 1 and for fire either the NTS level 1 or the NICET level II:

3)(a) for burglar alarms, take the Level I training course and receive a certificate of completion from the National Training School; or

(b) for fire alarms, take the Level I training course and receive a certificate of completion from the National Institute for Certification in Engineering Technologies;

Examinations for each classification, except for Burglar and Fire Alarm classifications, may only be taken 2 times in a 12-month period and thereafter only once in six months. Once you are approved through PSI, you will receive a Registration Confirmation Notice, which is valid for 1 year, or until an examination classification has been failed twice within the referenced time frame. Candidates are required to submit a registration form and examination fee for each examination. Note: Business Management and Law for Commercial Contractors may be taken on an unlimited basis over a 12-month period.

All questions and requests for information about the examination and receiving the commercial license application should be directed to:

TIPS FOR PREPARING FOR YOUR LICENSE EXAMINATION

The following suggestions will help you prepare for your license examination. Planned preparation increases your likelihood of passing.

- Start with a current copy of the Candidate Information Bulletin and use the examination content outline as the basis of your study.
- Read study materials that cover all the topics in the content outline.
- Take notes on what you study. Putting information in writing helps you commit it to memory, and it is also an excellent business practice. Underline or highlight key ideas that will help with a later review.
- Your studies will be most effective if you study frequently, for periods of about 45 to 60 minutes. Concentration tends to wander when you study for longer periods of time.
- Be sure to take proper identification with you to your scheduled examination appointment.
- Upon passing the examination, you may then submit your commercial license application to the SC Contractor’s Licensing Board.

DESCRIPTION OF EXAMINATIONS

The South Carolina Contractor’s Licensing Board has approved the Examination Content Outlines. The outlines reflect the minimum knowledge required by commercial contractors to perform their duties to the public in a competent and responsible manner. Changes in the content of the examinations will not be made until changes are made in the reference books.

If there is conflicting information between a code, law, or regulation and another authorized reference text, please be aware that the requirements of the code, law, or regulation prevail, and that the examination questions will be referenced to the code, law, or regulation.

Refer to the last topic in this Candidate Information Bulletin called “Scope of Work, Examination Contents, and Examination References” and look for the specific Examination Portion/License Category or Subcategory in which you are applying.

EXPERIMENTAL QUESTIONS

In addition to the number of questions per examination, up to ten “pretest” questions may be administered to candidates during the examinations. These questions will not be scored, and the time taken to answer them will be counted for the examination time allowed. The administration of such non-scored experimental questions is an essential step in developing future licensing examinations.

EXAMINATION STUDY MATERIALS

If a test question answer could differ because of conflicting information in test reference sources, a legal requirement such as a code, law or regulation overrides any other reference. If two legal requirements appear to conflict, the state-specific code, law or regulation overrides the national one. Information from sources on the test reference list overrides information from other sources or persons.

The list of possible study reference books or material for the commercial contractor examinations is listed after each commercial contractor scope of work (refer to the last topic in this Candidate Information Bulletin called “Scope of Work, Examination Contents, and Examination References” and look for the specific Examination Portion/License Category or Subcategory in which you are applying).

The reference materials listed were used to prepare the questions for this examination. The examination may also contain questions based on trade knowledge or general industry practices. Except for Code books, you can base your answers on later editions of references as they become available. For Code questions, the examinations will be based only on the edition of the Code book that is listed.

The list is given to identify possible resources to use in answering the examination questions and does not constitute an endorsement by PSI or by the South Carolina Contractor’s Licensing Board. Some questions may be based upon general knowledge of the specific trade and may not be listed in the reference books.

The following list of bookstores is provided to help you locate the books you may plan to purchase prior to taking your examination.

Many of these reference materials are available for purchase at www.psonlinestore.com or by calling the PSI Online Store toll-free at (866) 589-3088.
