ABOUT PSI

Oregon's Construction Contractor Licensing Act, ORS Chapter 701, requires that any person engaged in any construction activity involving improvements to real estate for compensation needs to be licensed with the Oregon Construction Contractors Board (the CCB).

The CCB has contracted with PSI to conduct examinations. PSI works closely with the Board to be certain that examinations meet local as well as national requirements in basic principles and examination development standards.

For more information on licensure please contact:

Oregon Construction Contractors Board
201 High St. SE
P.O Box 14140
Salem, OR 97301

APPROVAL TO TAKE THE EXAMINATION

You must be pre-approved to take an examination. Your education provider will provide your information, electronically, to PSI upon successful completion of the course requirements. You will receive an email confirmation immediately after you have been submitted.

A list of approved training providers is available from the CCB or online at <http://www.oregon.gov/CCB/licensing/Pages/list-prelicenseeducators.aspx>

As of July 1, 2016, applicants that have passed the National Association of State Contractors Licensing Agencies (NASCLA) Accredited Examination for Commercial General Building Contractors DO NOT have to complete the pre-licensing training course but do need to pass the Oregon exam covering laws, rules and business practices.

To become eligible to sit for the Oregon examination, applicants must provide proof of NASCLA exam passage to the CCB. The CCB will then provide your information, electronically, to PSI and you can schedule the Oregon exam.
