INTRODUCTION

This candidate licensing information bulletin provides information about the license examination and the application process for becoming licensed as a real estate broker in the State of Connecticut. To be licensed, you must:

You can now fill out the application online at [State of Connecticut Applications \(psixams.com\)](http://State of Connecticut Applications (psixams.com)).

OR

1. Submit an application, an application fee, and the required documents to PSI licensure: certification (PSI). Once you have met the requirements, you will be issued an Examination Eligibility postcard.
Note: This application can be found at end of this Candidate Information Bulletin.
2. Pass an examination to confirm that you have attained at least a minimum level of knowledge regarding the laws and regulations concerning the real estate profession.
3. Submit a license fee and the required documents to License Services. Payment of the license fee MUST be made within two (2) years of passing the last portion of the examination; otherwise a new application, along with the appropriate fee, must be submitted to PSI licensure:certification (PSI) in order to be eligible to retest.

Once the Department has verified that you have met all of the requirements for licensure, they will issue the appropriate license.

The Connecticut Department of Consumer Protection has contracted with PSI to conduct its examination program. PSI works closely with the Department to be certain that examinations meet local requirements and test development standards.

EDUCATIONAL REQUIREMENTS

The educational requirements for licensure as a Broker include:

- At least 3 years of licensure as a Real Estate Salesperson;
- Provide original certificates for the following courses: 60-hour Principles & Practices, 15-hour Legal Compliance, 15-hour Broker Principles & Practices, AND 2 -15 hour pre-license real estate electives. In lieu of the 2-15 hour electives: 30-hour Real Estate Appraisal course.

Nonresident License Requirements

A non-resident licensed Broker who has a valid license in his/her home state is eligible to become a real estate broker in Connecticut if the following rules are met:

- Competency written examinations are required within the home state.
- The home state allows licenses to be issued to residents of Connecticut without examination.
- The licensed individual does not have any disciplinary proceedings or complaints.

If these terms are not met, the applicant will then be required to pass the Connecticut portion of the real estate examination.

A current list of Real Estate license holders and approved schools is located on State of Connecticut, Department of Consumer Protection public web site. This site is reflective of the internal system as DCP Real Estate issues further approvals to Licensees and providers of education. Please see License Verification Web Site for a current list at www.ct.gov/dcp, then click on "License Verification".

TAKING THE EXAMINATION BY COMPUTER

The examination will be administered via computer. You will be using a mouse and computer keyboard.

IDENTIFICATION SCREEN

You will be directed to a semiprivate testing station to take the examination. When you are seated at the testing station, you will be prompted to confirm your name, identification number, and the examination for which you are registered.

TUTORIAL

Before you start your examination, an introductory tutorial is provided on the computer screen. The time you spend on this tutorial, up to 15 minutes, DOES NOT count as part of your examination time. Sample questions are included following the tutorial so that you may practice answering questions, and reviewing your answers.

TEST QUESTION SCREEN

One question appears on the screen at a time. During the examination, minutes remaining will be displayed at the top of the screen and updated as you record your answers.

IMPORTANT: After you have entered your responses, you will later be able to return to any question(s) and change your response, provided the examination time has not run out.

EXAMINATION REVIEW

PSI, in cooperation with the Connecticut Department of Consumer Protection, will be consistently evaluating the examinations being administered to ensure that the examinations accurately measure competency in the required knowledge areas. While taking the examination, examinees will have the opportunity to provide comments on any questions, by clicking the Comments link on the function bar of the test question screen.

These comments will be analyzed by PSI examination development staff. PSI does not respond to individuals regarding these comments. All substantive comments are reviewed. This is the only review of examination materials available to candidates.

SCORE REPORTING

In order to pass the Broker examinations, you must receive a score of at least 75%.

Your score will be given to you immediately following completion of the examination. The following summary describes the score reporting process:

- On screen - your score will appear immediately on the computer screen. This will happen automatically at the end of the time allowed for the examination;
 - If you pass, you will immediately receive a successful notification.
 - If you do not pass, you will receive a diagnostic report indicating your strengths and weaknesses by examination type with the score report.
- On paper - an unofficial score report will be printed at the examination site.

EXPERIMENTAL QUESTIONS

A small number of "experimental" questions (i.e., 5 to 10) may be administered to candidates during the examinations. These questions will not be scored and the time taken to answer them will not count against testing time. The administration of such unscored, experimental questions is an essential step in developing future licensing exams.

DUPLICATE SCORE REPORTS

You may request a duplicate score report after your examination by emailing scorereport@psionline.com or by calling (855) 746-8171.

LICENSE EXAMINATION PREPARATION

The following suggestions will help you prepare for your examination.

- Planned preparation increases your likelihood of passing.
- Start with a current copy of this Candidate Information Bulletin and use the examination content outline as the basis of your study.
- Read study materials that cover all the topics in the content outline.
- Take notes on what you study. Putting information in writing helps you commit it to memory and it is also an excellent business practice. Discuss new terms or concepts as frequently as you can with colleagues. This will test your understanding and reinforce ideas.
- Your studies will be most effective if you study frequently, for periods of about 45 to 60 minutes. Concentration tends to wander when you study for longer periods of time.

Now you can take the practice exam online at National Real Estate Broker Practice Exam to prepare for your Connecticut Real Estate Examination.

Please note that practice exams are intended only to help testing candidates become familiar with the general types of questions that will appear on a licensing examination. They ARE NOT a substitute for proper education and study. Furthermore, scoring well on the practice exam does not guarantee a positive outcome on an actual licensing examination.

Note: You may take the practice exams an unlimited number of times; you will need to pay each time.

DESCRIPTION OF EXAMINATIONS & EXAMINATION CONTENT OUTLINES

The Examination Content Outlines have been approved by the Occupational and Professional Licensing. These outlines reflect the minimum knowledge required by the real estate professionals to perform their duties to the public in a competent and responsible manner. Changes in the examination content will be preceded by changes in these published examination content outlines.

Use the outlines as the basis of your study. The outlines list all of the topics that are on the test and the number of items for each topic. Do not schedule your examination until you are familiar with all topics in the outlines.

The Examination Summary Table below shows the number of questions and the time allowed for each exam portion. The examinations are closed book.

The Martins tell you the house is exactly what they are looking for and they are very interested in purchasing it. You then give them information showing the various types of financing available with down payment options and projected payments.

Mr. Martin tells you they have been working with Mary Hempstead of XX Realty, a competing real estate company. Before leaving, you thank them for coming and give them your business card.

- A. The first thing on Monday morning, Mrs. Martin calls and indicates they have tried to reach Mary and cannot. They indicate they have a written buyer's agent agreement with Mary's broker. They are afraid someone else is going to buy the house. Which of the following should you do? Select the best answer.
1. Seek advice from your supervising broker.
 2. Tell them to come to your office.

 5. Tell them to call Mary's supervising broker or branch manager.
 6. Tell them you are really sorry, but there is nothing you can do.

- B. The Martins come to your office and explain that neither Mary nor her supervising broker are available. They insist you immediately write an offer for the house. How should you proceed? Select the best answer.
1. Write the offer after entering into a buyer's broker agreement with them.
 2. Write the offer after explaining they may owe Mary's broker a commission.
 3. Write the offer after trying to contact Mary's broker yourself.
 4. Refuse to write an offer and explain that doing so would be unethical.
