EXAMINATIONS BY PSI SERVICES LLC

This Candidate Information Bulletin provides you with information about the examination and application process for obtaining a real estate license in the State of Hawaii.

Hawaii state laws stipulate that a person may not act as a real estate salesperson, broker, or instructor without first obtaining a license issued by the Hawaii Real Estate Commission. To be licensed, you must pass an examination to confirm that you have attained at least a minimum level of knowledge regarding the principles, practices, statutes, and regulations relating to real estate.

The Hawaii Real Estate Commission has contracted with PSI Services LLC (PSI) to conduct the examination testing. PSI provides examinations through a network of computer examination centers in Hawaii. PSI works closely with the State to be certain that examinations meet local as well as national requirements in basic principles and examination development standards.

Following are the Hawaii real estate licensing examinations offered by PSI:

RETAKE A FAILED EXAMINATION

The examination is divided into two (2) sections: uniform (general) and state.
